Directions — (Q.21 – 30) : In each of the passages numbered blank spaces are given. Choose appropriate word or phrase for each blank from the given answer choices.

Much indeed of the education of men is made possible or impossible 21 by the environments 22 them. The most direct way of 23 their education will often be to modify the environment itself. A change of physical 24 will have its effects, but a change of mental and spiritual climate 25 many more. It is for this reason that the atmosphere and personality of school or mosque can matter so much. Families and institutions are important educationally 26 extent to which they reach deep down 27 affections and loyalties and are creative of temper and character. It is difficult 28 energetic and hard working in a society which 29 practises and approves of laziness. It is difficult to be enterprising 30 society which mostly has faith in the status quo.
